Your Life

At Corvallis Caring Place, compassion and traditional values form the basis of our approach to assisted living. Our services are designed to enhance independence and are guided by personal choices, while recognizing each individual's unique character and respecting his/her privacy.

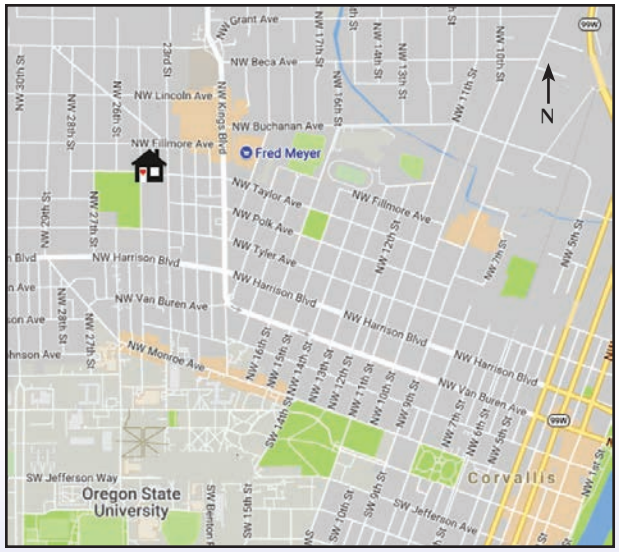
Your Home

As a non-profit, fully licensed Assisted Living Residence, we provide comfortable housing and assistance with activities of daily living. Adults, age 55+, feel at home in our relaxed and safe residential setting.

Your Community

Located in a quiet neighborhood setting, residents have easy access to parks, shopping, health care, the Senior Center, and cultural and educational opportunities at Oregon State University.

Corvallis Caring Place considers and admits persons without regard to race, color, national origin, religion, gender, sexual orientation, or disability. We do require applicants to demonstrate they can meet certain requirements of residency. A limited number of apparments are reserved for low income and Medicaid residents.



Location

Very close to shopping, Senior Center, churches, public parks, and pharmacies.
